A BARRE INTERVIEW

Mr. Hooker Tells His Experience

The following brief account of an interview with a Barre man ten years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

L. H. Hooker, 101 Prospect street, Barre, says:

"I had a constant dull pain over my kidneys and I could sit but a short time, on account of nervousness. I had kidney weakness which was very annoying at night. Doan's Kidney Pills helped me from the first. I took five boxes in all, procured at Drown's Drug Store, and they relieved me."

OVER TEN YEARS LATER, Mr. Hooker said:

"I still use Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally, and they never fail to relieve me of kidney complaint."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hooker had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

APPROVED BY STOCKHOLDERS

Acts of the New Haven Directors Were Sanned

TIMOTHY E. BYRNES' ACTIVITIES TOLD OF

Consulted Governor Draper as to Legislation in Massachusetts

New York, Dec. 11.—The 22,000 stockholders of the N. Y. N. H. & H. railroad approved all the acts of the directors of the road, the defense emphasized to the jury yesterday in winding up the cross examination of Charles S. Mellen at the trial of the 11 former directors of the New Haven indicted for criminal violation of the Sherman law.

Mr. Mellen testified that once a year the stockholders at their annual meeting received a full report of all transactions, acquisitions, leases and other doings of the New Haven board and were given an explanation of all transactions upon which they desired information.

During the last three years William Rockefeller, Mr. Mellen said, in response to a question from Richard V. Lindabury, Mr. Rockefeller's counsel, had taken no active part in the proceedings of the board.

"He was regular in his attendance," said the witness, "but on account of his voice could not take active part. He would sometimes come over and whisper to me and ask me for an explanation of things he did not understand."

R. L. for the government then took up re-direct examination.

The federal attorney wanted to know if the annual report of the New Haven ever mentioned how much money had been spent on legislative activity.

Mr. Mellen said "no" but that one stockholder had "been turned loose in the treasurer's office and came away satisfied on the point after an examination of the books."

"Was there any statement made to the stockholders of the expenditures made in the presidential campaign of 1904?" asked Mr. Battis.

"No," said the witness, adding that the New Haven's contribution to the campaign became known at the interstate commerce investigation into New Haven affairs.

Mr. Battis then brought out that Mellen was a defendant with other directors in a pending stockholders' suit for the restitution of funds alleged to have been misused by them and in a suit for an accounting of transactions between Mellen and the Billard company.

In the re-direct examination of Mr. Mellen, the government sought to show that influences were brought to bear on Massachusetts authorities to secure legislation enabling the New Haven to control the Boston & Maine railroad. The defense had tried to establish that the B. & M. acquisition had legal sanction, Mellen admitted that Timothy E. Byrnes, then vice president of the New Haven, consulted with the late Eben S. Draper, then governor of Massachusetts, the subject being the Boston Railroad Holding company bill. Mr. Mellen received a copy of the bill for criticism.

Mellen said that after Governor Draper had sent his message to the legislature "he told us to get busy and help pass the bill." The defense objected to a question hinting that Governor Draper was to nominate the president of the

PAIN GONE! RUB SORE, RHEUMATIC ACHING JOINTS

Rub Pain Away with a Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil"

Stop "dosing" rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in 50 requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say "Jack Robinson" out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment, which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Linger up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.—Adv.

Boston & Maine and the objection was sustained.
Mr. Mellen denied that the activity of Robert Winsor of Kidder, Peabody & Co., at this time was at all due to the "excessive profit" allowed Mr. Mellen by the banking firm on B. & M. shares.

HAIR AND SCALP NEED DAILY CARE

Beautiful Hair Is Within the Reach of All
If you value the appearance of your hair, you should treat your scalp as often and well as you brush your teeth, and rub into the scalp pores twice daily a little Parisian Sage. This treatment is not a mere "hair tonic." It is bottled nourishment for the hair roots, and it is simply wonderful what an improvement its use for even a week will make in the appearance of anyone's hair. It never injures, is delightfully cool and pleasant to the scalp, and takes out the dull, lifeless look in the hair, making it soft, fluffy, glossy and beautiful. Two or three applications remove every trace of dandruff, and daily use will prevent its return. The Red Cross Pharmacy and the leading druggists everywhere can furnish you with Parisian Sage—it costs but a trifle.—Adv.
